

THE BAILEY K. ASHFORD CLINICAL AND LABORATORY RESEARCH AWARD

The Bailey K. Ashford Clinical Research Award is presented to a member of the house staff who has contributed the most significant research to the Clinical Investigation Program during his/her years of training at WRAMC. An engraved medallion, a certificate, and a $750 prize are presented to the awardees at the WRAMC graduation exercises in June.

The Award was established in 1974 through the efforts of Colonel Marcel E. Conrad, the first Chief of Clinical Investigation at WRAMC. At his retirement, Dr. Conrad chose to dedicate the award in the name of Colonel Bailey K. Ashford to honor Dr. Ashford's work in solving the problem of anemia caused by hookworm in Puerto Rico in the early 1900's.
